Your rights under the GDPR

Under the GDPR you have the right to see what data we hold about you and why we hold this data. You also have the right to request us to make changes to this data or to delete them altogether (in which case you would receive no messages from us at all and for this reason we may refuse to delete your details, because we need to be in a position to inform you efficiently about different aspects of your employment in order to maintain it and keep you updated at all times).

Changes to this Policy

You will be informed of any changes to this Privacy Policy and any changes will be published on our website from time to time. www.shieldgroup.co.uk.

Updating Information

Please inform us immediately of any changes to your personal information by contacting our Payroll/HR Department, payroll-hr@shieldgroup.co.uk.

Subject Access requests

All individuals who are subject of personal data held by Shield Service Group Ltd are entitled to:

- Ask what information the company holds about them and why.
- Ask how to gain access to it.
- Be informed how to keep it up to date.
- Be informed how the company is meeting its data protection obligations.

If an individual contacts the company requesting this information, this is called a subject access request.

Subject access requests from individuals should be made by email, addressed to the HR/Payroll department at payroll-hr@shieldgroup.co.uk. The HR/Payroll department can supply a standard request form, although individuals do not have to use this.

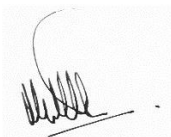

Individuals will be charged £10 per subject access request. The HR/Payroll department will aim to provide the relevant data within 14 days.

The HR/Payroll department will always verify the identity of anyone making a subject access request before handing over any information.
